

Are you thinking of moving to a retirement or assisted living facility? Not sure where to start?

Are you assisting an aging parent in their move, in addition to your own family and work responsibilities?

A Professional Organizer can help make the transition to senior living a smooth one, from beginning to end.

At OrganizME Solutions, we can help you:

- Develop a realistic timeline for the move
- Determine the amount of items that will fit into the new living space
- Go through all your belongings with you, helping you decide what to bring with you
- Sort through years of paperwork, and determine what needs to be kept
- Re-organize family photos, memorabilia collections
- De-clutter and purge items that are no longer needed
- Package and ship items promised to family and friends
- Prepare and hold a garage sale or estate sale
- Donate remaining items to charitable organizations
- Interview and hire moving staff on your behalf
- Coordinate move with family, moving company, and facility staff
- Cancel and reroute services and utilities
- Securely pack belongings
- Prepare your existing home for sale
- Oversee moving company on day of move
- Design a safe and efficient floor plan to meet your needs
- Unpack items in new home
- Organize cabinets, closets, kitchens in new home

Moving from the family home is among the most stressful events an older adult ever faces. At a time when emotions are running high, the list of things-to-do seems endless... a lifetime of belongings to sort through... tough decisions to make about what to take... Hiring a professional may be the best decision for you or your loved one! We can provide companionship, organizing and moving expertise, and peace of mind... call us today to book your initial consultation, and leave the worries to us!
